MRS. A. AARDAL DIES AFTER A LONG ILLNESS

College Students and Faculty Assist With Funeral Rites.

Mrs. Albert A. Aardal, wife of Prof. Albert Aardal, passed away early Monday morning at her home here in Waverly after an illness of nine months.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 29, at 1:30 at the F. C. Koch funeral home and at 2:15 at the St. Paul's Lutheran church. The scripture was read by President E. J. Braulick; Rev. R. C. Schlueter delivered the sermon, and Dr. A. E. Haefner read the obituary. Special musical numbers were sung by Prof. A. W. Swensen and the Wartburg college quartet.

Mrs. Aardal is survived by her husband, three daughters, one sister, two brothers, and her mother.

The pallbearers were: Alfred Engelbrecht, Erich Hoefer, Edgar Jahr, Ernest Oppermann, Erwin Siedel, and Loren Wedeking, all students of Wartburg college.

Honorary pallbearers were: Professors Neumann, Cornils, Ottersburg, Cottermann, Chellevold, Muench, Kuhlmann, Fritz, Hertel, Swensen, Hiltner, and Mr. Engelbrecht.

Interment was made in St. Paul's cemetery.

THEILE TRAVELS IN NEW GUINEA

Auto Transportation Proves More Thrilling Than Travel by Plane.

"An airplane ride is no thrill compared with transportation in a 40 inch-gage automobile of doubtful composition through New Guinea mountains," declared the Rev. Otto Theile of Brisbane, Australia, in an address to Wartburg students and faculty Friday, Sept. 25.

Transportation is hazardous and fatiguing because of the mountainous surface of the island, he said. The Rev. Mr. Theile has had numerous occasions to experience rigors of travel there. A part of his duty as representative of mission societies of Germany, the American Lutheran church and the United Lutheran church of Australia includes a yearly visit to esch mission post. He has spent nearly two years in New Guinea at various times.

Ten Miles a Day.

"Considering only the difficulties of travel, we can but wonder at the perseverance of the workers in the mission field. Ten miles is a full day's trip through the interior," the speaker continued. "Here in Iowa, you cannot imagine the difficulties which missionaries must face in order to perform their regular pastoral duties."

While in America, he will attend a meeting of the mission board of the American Lutheran Church at Minneapolis and will be present at the synodical meeting in San Antonio.

Band Instructor

MELVIN DEAN

DEAN TO DIRECT COLLEGE BAND

Twenty-five Join Group of Which Harry Rappath Was Elected President.

Wartburg College welcomes Mr. Melvin Dean as a new member of its faculty. Mr. Dean is the instructor of band and orchestra for the ensuing year.

He studied at the American Conservatory of Music, Chicago, for a year and a half and received his bachelor's degree from the University of Iowa. Mr. Dean took graduate work at Iowa and Northwestern University.

This is his second year as instructor at the Waverly high school.

The first band rehearsal was held Wednesday evening, Sept. 23, with about 25 members attending. Officers elected were: President, Harry Rappath of Grafton, Iowa, and librarian, Margaret Droste of Waverly.

The orchestra assembled Tuesday evening, Sept. 29. Approximately 15 students compose the membership.

Weekly rehearsals will be held for both organizations.

Miss Lyon, Opera Singer, Featured On First Lyceum

The Don Carlos Opera Company presented a concert to Wartburg students and the public Friday evening, Sept. 26.

The company consisted of Madame Evans, who introduced the group: Guisype Lazsaricus, tenor; Walter Mentoff, baritone; Ruby Spencer Lyon, soprano; and Gudriun Thorsar, contralto and pianist. Each member of the company sang several numbers and encores. Two duet numbers and two quartet numbers were also given.

The company, with perhaps several additions, may return the latter part of October and present another program.

President Braulick contacted the company by telegraph and arranged for their program here. The company was enroute to Chicago and New York.

GOLDEN JUBILEE CELEBRATED BY ENGELBRECHTS

Immediate Relatives and Friends Extend Congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. August Engelbrecht, Sr., celebrated their golden wedding aniversary Sunday, Sept. 27. They were united in marriage in 1886 in Defiance, Ohio.

Mr. Engelbrecht was principal of the Trinity Parish School in Chicago, Ill., where the couple made their home until 1890, when he was called to Wartburg college as professor of the college in Waverly.

Remained With College.

When the Wartburg college was moved to Clinton in 1894, Mr. Engelbrecht was the only member of the faculty who remained at Waverly with the Wartburg Normal college. He opened the school with seven students enrolled. He was president of Wartburg Normal college from 1909 until 1933, when the Normal college was merged to join Wartburg at Clinton. In 1935 the college was again situated at Waverly, and since that time Mr. Engelbrecht has been employed as treasurer.

Children Help Celebrate.

Five of Mr. and Mrs. Engelbrecht's eight children are still living. They are: Rev. August Engelbrecht of Mendota, Ill.; Miss Ella Engelbrecht who is staying with her parents; Mrs. Rev. Schalkhauser of Toledo, O.; Edwin Engelbrecht, cashier of the Waverly Savings Bank; and Herbert Engelbrecht, who is principal of the high school in Nevada, Iowa.

Rev. R. C. Schlueter, St. Paul's Lutheran church, conducted an appropriate ceremony for the occasion, after which a family dinner was served for Mr. and Mrs. Engelbrecht, their children, and grandchildren.

Many of their friends stopped by in the afternoon and extended their most sincere congratulations. The faculty and students expressed their congratulations with gifts.

HAAS SPEAKS AT LEAGUE MEETING

Four Organ Selections Played by Heist; Twenty-one New Members Join.

"Conscience" was the topic presented by Rev. Norman Haas of Wartburg College at the regular bi-weekly meeting of St. Paul's Luther League held Sunday evening, Sept. 27, in the church auditorium.

Prof. E. G. Heist, director of music at Wartburg, played four selections on the organ as follows:

Monastary Choir——Chopin
Allegro from Fantasie in G——Batiste
Prelude on What a Friend We Have in Jesus——Grote
Hallelujah——Isieh

During the business meeting 21 new members were received into the society.

Following the business meeting a mixer was held in the basement of the church. Later in the evening all gathered in the parish hall where refreshments were served. Lorraine Eckstein had charge of games and refreshments.

Women of Wartburg Hall Sponsor Hike

Residents of Wartburg Hall hiked out to the fairgrounds Wednesday evening, Sept. 23, to hold their house meeting.

A bonfire was built and marshmallows were roasted. After singing several songs, the women returned to the dormitory.

The house meetings are in charge of the house council and are held every two weeks at 9:30 o'clock. Members of the council are: Rosalma Neubauer, president; Eleanor Gross, Marie Voelker, Hedwig Schmidt, and Hedwig Rausch, board members.

Subscribe to the Wartburg Trumpet.

In order to obtain furniture for North Hall, a private group of Waverly women sponsored and advertised Donation Day, Sept. 23. Furniture was donated from Waverly and vicinity and will be used to equip the lounges.

A Word of Sympathy

The Trumpet staff, with the members of the faculty and student body, herewith wish to extend to Professor Albert Aardal and daughters Anne, Jane, and Emma Jean their deepest sympathy in this hour of sorrow. We ask the Bishop and Shepherd of our souls to comfort and console them in the days to come.

OCTOBER 31 SET FOR HOMECOMING

E. Jahr Appointed General Chairman; Pep Club to Sponsor Event.

Oct. 31 will be Homecoming at Wartburg. Plans for this event are going forward swiftly under the leadership of Edgar Jahr, a senior, who has been appointed chairman of the general homecoming committee. Waldemar Langhloz and Herbert Adix are the other members of the committee.

The Pep club wil again sponsor this annual celebration and will have complete charge of all program arrangements. The "W" club will do its part by selling homecoming buttons and also booklets, with Ernest Opperman, and Arnold Lehmann heading the committee in charge of the sales.

Present plans include a rally Friday night, Oct. 30, featured by a big bonfire, if possible. Saturday afternoon, Oct. 31, Coach Hertel's Knights will battle Northern college of Watertown, Wis., last year's second-place winners in the Tri-state conference, at the municipal field. The climax of the Homecoming will be the all-school banquet which will be held Saturday evening at the Legion hall. President Braulick will act as toastmaster for these functions.

The other committees are as follows: program, Richard Gronewold, chairman; Erwin Knitt, Ina Voelker; eats, Hedwig Rausch, chairman, Gerhardt Reiff, Eugene Leschensky; decorating, Rosalma Neubauer, chairman, Edward Wagner, Ernest Poehlmann, Hiltrude Braulick, and Mae Cain. Sigmund Sandrock heads the clean-up committee and he will appoint all freshmen workers.

Karsten Chosen To Head Male Chorus

Arnold Karsten, senior pre-theological student of Alta Vista, Iowa, is president of the organization and Ernest Poehlman of New Ulm, Texas, is librarian.

Thirty men attended the first meeting of the Male chorus under the direction of Professor E. G. Heist, on Monday evening, Sept. 21.

The first rehearsal of the mixed chorus was held Wednesday evening, Sept. 30. The mixed chorus is composed of sixty-four voices, namely: twenty sopranos, nineteen altos, ten tenors, and fifteen bases.

The work of both chorus groups will be limited to sacred music.

Prof. G. Ottersberg went to Augustana College, Rock Island, Ill., Oct. 1 to attend the inauguration of its new president, Dr. Conrad Bergendorff.

PI SIGMA PLANS "CHARM SCHOOL"

Hedwig Rausch, Social Committee Chairman, Announces List of Interesting Lectures.

"Charm School" will be conducted in a series of discussions by outside speakers for members of Pi Sigma, the women's organization of Wartburg College.

According to Hedwig Rausch, chairman of the social committee, the first meeting of each month will be business-like in nature. Lectures and discussions will be conducted on beauty culture, health as a personality basis, dating, etiquette, ordering and table service, and the well-rounded life.

Social Gatherings.

The second meeting of each month will be a social gathering. A hallowe'en party, tea for the faculty wives, an Orphans' Home party and a twelfth night party will be arranged during the year. Other festivities will be a Valentine party, a Lenten candlelight service, a convocation service, a formal afternoon tea and a sunrise hike.

Committees.

Helen Wetterling and Margaret Droste are the other members of the social committee. The ways and means committee consists of Gertrude Groshans, chairman; Marie Voelker, Eleanor Gross, and Lucille Behrens. Members of the program committees are the chairman, Hiltrude Braulick, Henrietta Johnson, and Irma Clarke. The membership committee consists of Lillian Roggow chairman, Doris Krause and Norma Sindt.

G. A. A. USES POINT SYSTEM

Girls May Earn Letters in Large Number of Sports During the Year.

A definite Girls' Athletic Association program for this year has been arranged by Dean Katherine Kaiser. The club will be separate from the regular girls athletic teams and operated on the basis of a point system by which all who participate will have the privilege of earning numbers or letters.

Elected officers, such as president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer, will preside over the meetings with Miss K. Kaiser and Miss A. Schoenbohm as club advisors. As self-supporting organization, it will have regular dues, the amount of which will be decided at the first meeting. There will also be a club constitution.

Points will be given for skill in the various sports, and in self-testing activities, such as running, jumping, and cartwheels. By showing leadership, health, and sportsmanship, the girls will receive points. Points can also be gained by passing a posture test which Miss Kaiser thinks will be very beneficial this year.

Letters and numbers will be awarded to girls excelling in the ollowing organized activities: archery, baseball, speedball, soccor, golf, rhythmic exercises, tennis, volley-ball, hiking, stunts, tumbling, and track meets. There will also be some unorganized activities such as bicycling, roller-skating, and ice-skating in which the girls may win either numbers or letters.

Miss Kaiser is trying to have the program varied enough so that every girl who is interested may have a chance to win at least one letter.

Miss Mathilde Bodensieck visited relatives at Nashua Sept. 25 to 27.

PRES. BRAULICK TO PARTICIPATE IN CONVENTION

Graening, Hagemann and Wenninger Will Also Attend.

President Braulick left Saturday night, Oct. 3, to attend the biennial convention of the American Lutheran Church which will convene at San Antonio, Texas Oct. 9 to 15.

On his way to the convention he will stop at Kansas City, where he will be accompanied by the Rev. Bahrens, Thiensville, Wis., who is president of the board of regents. From there they will go to Oklahoma, reaching San Antonio on the Katy Railway. They plan to arrive in San Antonio Monday morning, Oct. 5.

Fred P. Hagemann, Rev. A. G. Wenninger and Dr. C. H. Graening of Waverly will also be representatives at the convention.

The preliminary committees will meet Monday afternoon in the main auditorium of St. John's Lutheran church. The convention will officially begin Friday morning, Oct. 9, at 9 o'clock, with a service conducted by the acting president, Em. Poppen, D. D., of Columbus, Ohio.

All main services during the convention will be conducted by Dr. R. E. Golleday, also from Columbus.

After the transacting of all important business matters, the convention will adjourn Friday, Oct. 16.

Exhibit at Convention.

Wartburg College will present a striking exhibit plannned by Rev. A. H. Braun, field representative, at the convention.

An orange background with side pillars in black, representing the school colors will form a colorful setting. The exhibit proper will consist chiefly of mounted photographs, each with an attractive "cap," depicting the school buildings and activities. Beneath these will be grouped graphs showing the progress made in various departments during the past three years.

The exhibit will be placed in the parish hall of St. John's Lutheran church, host of the convention.

Future Pastors Must Take Piano Lessons 2 Years

Pre-theological students from the junior and senior classes are now required to take a two-year piano course from Professor E. G. Heist.

The Board of Education passed this resolution a few years ago, and the faculty made the specific requirements effective this year.

If the students are able to play hymns, they will be exempt from the course, but all others will be given the course without extra cost.

Lessons will be given once every two weeks and all students are advised to practice thirty minutes daily.

President Braulick returned last week from a trip to Minneapolis and Brainerd, Minn. He investigated the potato situation and reports that there will be a scarcity of potatoes this winter.

Miss Berniece Ward of Bagley, Wis., registered at Wartburg for a short business course, Sept. 29. Her delay in registration was due to illness.

THEY HEAD WARTBURG SENIORS

Wartburg Outfliers Find Happy Landing in Woods

Everything Employed to Reach Secluded Spot.

Bicyclists, motorists, pedestrians flocked recently to Babcock's woods, south of Waverly. Any Wartburg or alumnus knows what that means—nothing but Outfly.

This year Wartburgers "outflew" early in the morning and stayed flown till a late hour. Before the breakfast hour, cries of "Outfly" filled the air; by class time, the victory bell, two trombones and a trumpet had aided the would-be 'fliers in gaining faculty consent. Snake-dancing out of Luther hall, students spread the good news until nine o'clock, when the picnic place was announced.

While freshmen combed the campus for Outfly wings, seniors started their day by buttering 1000 buns and preparing the rest of a meal in like proportion. About noon, hungry explorers and kitten-ballers collected to await the seniors and, incidentally, the food.

Afternoon activities included the usual kitten-ball, explorations, hikes, bicycling, horseshoe contests, and lazy conversation. Supper was served eventually, and Wartburg finished the day with a big fire. With Wartburg yells still ringing in their ears, they climbed on trucks and cars, feeling only good-will to the memorable (though forgotten) Wartburger who first yelled for the first Outfly.

TEXAS CONVENTION

October 9-15 will be momentous days in the history of the American Lutheran church. The church will meet in biennial convention in San Antonio, Texas. Far reaching resolutions will be adopted regarding the work of the church, especially regarding home and foreign missions, charitable institutions, and education—both elementary and higher.

Wartburg college is especially interested in the resolutions that pertain to the church's mid-west senior college. May the friends of the school offer intercession at the Throne of God that nothing may be done which will be contrary to God's Will. We trust that the convention will be education-minded, and that it will resolve to support Wartburg even more than in the past, that Wartburg may become a real blessing to the church. —E. J. B.

THE CITY AND THE COLLEGE

In a college city there is always one eminent problem, a problem which if it is not solved or solved incorrectly may seriously damage the growth of the college and even cause it to fail.

A college is of necessity part of the city in whose limits it is placed. If, for instance, a prospective student considers Wartburg as the school of his choice, he will immediately ask, "What kind of a city is Waverly? What is its size and are the citizens of Waverly backing the college?" Why shouldn't he ask these questions? No student cares to go to a college if he and his Alma Mater are merely considered aliens of the city. The city must be the patron of the college in its midst; it must give loyal support to the activities and projects sponsored by that institution. The city and Wartburg should stand as one unit so that if one hears of Waverly, he will think of Wartburg, and hearing of Wartburg, he will think of Waverly.

What Is Loyal Support?

Now the question may arise "What is meant by loyal support?" Loyal support of a college does not mean that the college is begging for charity or anything of the kind. It does mean that every citizen of Waverly is interested in the college. It means that its athletic and educational activities are supported with interest, cheering, congratulations, and even with friendly criticism. In short, if the citizens of Waverly consider Wartburg their school, then they will without any outside motivation support Wartburg and its various departments.

Wartburg has this fall opened its doors for only its second year of history, and already it has found many warm and enthusiastic friends and supporters in Waverly. A number of the business men are ready to cooperate to help Wartburg at any time. If this spirit of interest and patronage of Waverly toward Wartburg continues and grows as the college is growing, then there is no reason why Wartburg should not become a strong institution which will bring honor and fame to its city. —E. H.

HOW YOU MAY KNOW

Wartburg history of 1936-37 is being written every day. How much of it have you read? The Trumpet, as the official newspaper of the college, serves as a recorder of all important events — social, religious, or athletic in nature. As an interested and loyal supporter of this school, you will want to know all of the history of this school year. However, the only way you can stay well acquainted with your school is to read its paper. Not only present events but past as well can be known by reading the paper, for through the alumni column, you can learn of the whereabouts of former classmates.

Any school lives by the support it receives from friends and former students. The first issue of the Trumpet was sent you to renew again your interest in the school and to remind you that the school and paper cannot survive without the support of all alumni. Before any more issues of the paper have gone to press, send in your subscription fee of one dollar. With your support the Trumpet can continue to inform you of Wartburg activities. Subscribe now!

THINGS WE APPRECIATE

Refering to the spirit exhibited by friends of Wartburg college it is discovered that each individual has his own way of revealing his interest.

In order to make the all-college outing of a week or so ago as complete as possible, the Meyer's Drug store donated the ice cream that was served at the noon meal. The way the students scrambled back with the hope that the servers would dish out seconds we may be sure that this donation was heartily appreciated.

Therefore, by these words we wish to thank the donors for this kind consideration.

The Fountain

"It Bubbles Over"

We believe that students should be well informed as to all campus events; therefore we are running two columns in the Trumpet. Never let it be said that we claim the authorship of the Hashbowl. "Hashbowl" reminds us of the food at the dining ball, which has a very similar flavor. Apologies to the cooks.

On Bubbles

Imagine the embarrassment of a Christianity class when Prof. Hiltner asked members to recite the Ten Commandments! Wally could repeat them only in German. . . . A speaker said college spirit is contagious. I suppose we should all be quarantined . . . Doc says be studies hts Readiyn, writin' and 'rithmetic. And say, Doc, the telephone is quite an invention, isn't it?

the fountain.

Hilly was the unsuspecting hostess to a week-end party which started Thursday afternoon. Can those girls cook! Even Gronie admitted that the chocolate pie was good. . . . A lot of moving has been done at Grossmann lately. The "Gas House Gang" found it necessary to furnish its own clubroom. Other Grossmann residents refused to allow them into the lounge. Too much hot air?

it bubbles

Dave: Say Walter, do you have enough shoe polish left for Reiff's and my shoes?

Schultheist: I don't know, what size shoes do you wear?

and bubbles

What's this about Sandy getting his dates at the cemetery? . . . We nominate for Wartburg's mascot, Propp's Austin. It's certainly running between the trees on the campus enough . . . Our enthusiastic bicyclist, Jahr, is no more. Since he passed out while riding to Outfly, he has given up the dangerous sport . . . We noticed many students studying nature at Outfly (in more than one way.) Coach's bontany class should bave increased tremendously!

Estherville sounds tame, bul you should have seen the football squad when it returned to Wartburg . . . I'll wager Satan Deluder would be surprised to know that he formed the "Devil's Act" as Irene stated in her education test.

and bubbles

Carl Schultz: Do your eyes bother you?

Rosie: No, why?

Carl: Well, they bother me!

aw sbucks!

Questions noted in psychology class:

Art Nickle: Since an individual has more than one bone in his head, isn't it better to call him "bones-head" instead of "bonehead"?

Dave Herman: Do sailors have rickets; is that why they're bowlegged?

$73,298.97 Spent by Wartburg For All Purposes Last Year

Figures Given Out in Report of College Treasurer.

Rent of land—$5.00; hardware—$.91; agricultural and horticultural supplies—$2.31; masonry and road materials—$3.48; freight, cartage and express—$.25; painis, oil, and glass—$.77. Wait a minute! If we're going to find out bow the college spent $73,298.97 last year, maybe we had better go at it systematically and in a few larger figures.

First let us go into the treasurer's office and procure a folder which stotes the financial condition of Wartburg College for last year. Paging through this we are immediately lost in a myriad of numbers, decimal points, and dollar signs. Again resorting to our systematic way we stort at the front of the folder and begin industriously to thumb our way through. Finally we arrive at a page which has disbursements on it printed in large letters.

General Administration

Under disbursements are two heads, Expenditures and Other Disbursements. Tackling the expenditures first we find:

General Administration—$11,781.53. Now what does that mean? Thumbing along still farther we come to a page where these large jawbreakers are broken up into smaller bits for better digestion. There we find that general administration takes in the general administrative offices (president, secretary, treasurer, etc.) and the publicity and field work.

College of Liberal Arts—$27,588.38. The professors' salaries are taken out of this sum.

Library—$1,415.73. This includes salaries, wages, freight, cartage and express, office supplies, paints, oil, glass, and printing and binding of books.

General Operation and Moving—$13,991.58. The fuel bill alone was $3,653.20.

Auxiliary Enterprises — $14,642.99. This includes dining hall, student medical service and college activities, athletics, Wartburg Trumpet, Lyceum, and last but not least, the book store.

Other noneducational—$1,955.50. Scholarships and other student aid not to be repaid.

Total expenditures are $71,373.71; $268.10 of this total are experditures incurred but not paid in June. This leaves the cash expenditures at $71,087.81.

Other disbursements are next in line.

Transfer of Appropriation Advance—$1,655.00.

Payment of account payable—$100.00.

Refund student deposits — $481.36.

Total other disbursements is $2,211.36 and total all disbursements is $73,298.97 (expenditures plus other disbursements).

And so with our heads swimming madly and our knees a bit shaky we finally have the true facts of the $73,298.97 expenditures of last year.

Dean G. J. Neumann will attend the seventy-fifth anniversary of the State Teachers college at Cedar Falls, Iowa, Thursday afternoon, Oct. 8, as representative of Wartburg and Capitol University, Columbus, Ohio.

SEMINARY NOTES

Mission Director F. Otto Theile of Brisbane, Australia, addressed the Wartburg Seminary forum on Monday evening, Sept. 21. Mr. Theile spoke on the work of the New Guinea mission, of which he is a representative.

The Reverends Arlin Adams, Paul Eilers, Howard Hahn, and Orville Reeg visited on the campus the past week.

With the recent acceptance of a pastorate at Bennington, Ia., by the Rev. Albert Gess, all the candidates of last year's graduating class have been placed.

A number of seminary studenis attended the Sunday school convention held at Monticello, Iowa, on Sunday, Sept. 27.

The Rev. C. W. Pflueger of Columbus, O., was a guest of the seminary last Monday. During his visit he addressed the student body on inner mission work done in Columbus which he superintends. Rev. Pflueger stopped here on his way to an Inner Mission conference at Omaha, Neb.

Mr. Roald Braulick and Mr. Karl Ufer were elected co-editors of the Loci at a recent student body meeting.

Pres. E. H. Rausch and Dr. M. Reu left this week-end for San Antonio, Tex., where they will attend the convention of the American Lutheran church. President Rausch will represent the seminary and Dr. Reu will be one of the delegates of the Iowa district.

The student body officiais of this year are: President, Edmund Schleicher; vice president, Carl Becker; secretory-treasurer, Ernest Theilen.

Pres. E. H. Rausch represented the seminary last Thursday at the installation of Dr. Conrad Bergendoff as president of Augustana college and Theological seminary at Rock Island, Ill. Dr. Rausch was one of the speakers at a luncheon held at the Fort Armstrong hotel after the installation.

The Misses Lorna Mae Folkerts, Evelyn Loats and Mildred Benecke spent last week-end visiting at their homes in Palmer.

October

Poets praise the glorious spring time
And the balmy summer days,
But my choice is grand October
With its misty purple haze.

When the burningbush turns scarlet
And the golden rod's aglo,
There are asters by the roadside
Black birds flying to and fro.

Rich and black the soil is lying
Where the plowman turned the sod,
Ready for another planting,
As he puts his faith in God.

Hash Bowl

By Je-Lily

Again the Hash Bowl is filled with a little of everything, and, as you know, there is no recipe for hash. It just accumulates — so it is with this—some of it may not be so good, but when it is mixed who knows the diff . . . A radio comedian once stoted that divorce was hash made of demestic scraps . . . It's a good thing the Democrats are ambidextrous because the Republicans are biting the hand that is feeding them . . . The general sounds emitting from Grossmann Hall after dinner would make a timber wolf turn pea green with envy—some call it singing— but I wonder . . . Some of the Wartburgers are pondering over the WORDS—car, caress, care-less, and carless . . . Prof. Fritz says "Will Power is the ability to eat in a Boarding Club." . . . Yes, Sir, dieting is the triumph of mind over platter . . . The heads of our coeds are like a swivel chair—anyone can turn them . . . Kuethe is the kind of a motorist who thinks a locomotive whistles at crossing just to keep up its courage . . . Coach Hertel wants us to call him "Colonel"—for he parts his hair with military brushes . . . A definition for Faculty is a group of instructors surrounded with a lot of red tope . . . We have a suicide blonde on our campus—dyed by her own hands . . . A wise man is one who no's a lot. . . . I understand some of the freshman boys can't sleep well at night and as a result have been taking long walks — be careful boys, it disturbs the upper classmen . . . I also understand most of the girls in the dorm are suffering from nostalgia . . . A Republican is a politician who stonds for what he thinks others will fall for . . . The measure of a man's real character is what he would do if he knew he would never be found out.

"W" CLUB TAKES UP NEW PLANS

At the meeting of the "W" club September 17, Ernest Staehling outlined the year's program. The main idea of the program is to raise enough money to furnish the club with its expenses and to buy the necessary sweaters for those senior athletes who have won two or more letters while attending Wartburg.

The club has attained the sole right to sell candy and hot dogs at the football games. Another plan in action is to sell stickers, bannars, and badges at Homecoming.

The "W" club has at present 13 active members, 4 alumni, 3 honorary members, and 6 new members to be initiated at the next official meeting of the club, Oct. 22. The active members are: Carl Schultz, Arnold Karsten, Arnold Lehmann, Arnold Kuester, Cletus Bergman, Herbert Jeck, Art Nickel, Ed. Harden, Walter Leutkens, Arno Oberleiter, Paul Heist, Ernest Opperman, Harry Ruppath, and Robert Nygren. Alumni are: Ray Meyer, August Engelbrecht, Elmer Kretschmar, and Johnny Kammerer. Honorary members are Stanley Roessler, Albert Guetzlaff, and Alfred Engelbrecht.

Only men who won their letters at Wartburg will be admitted to the club.

STUDENTS HEAR GUEST SPEAKERS IN CONVOCATION

Variety of Topics to Be Offered This Year.

The variety of guest speakers heard at the convocations for the past few weeks has been outstanding. Besides the addres given by Reverend Thiele of Brisbane, Australia, on the Australia and New Guinea, the student body, also had the pleasure of hearing Rev. Lloyd A. Gustafson of the Methodist church in Waverly, J. F. Clark, Reverend Prottengeier of Charles City, Iowa, and Reverend Phlueger of Columbus, O.

Reverend Gustafson spoke to the student body on Monday, Sept. 21. His subject was: "New Frontiers for Our Generation." In this he developed the idea that not only did our forefathers have frontiers to overcome, but we today have them, too. Whereas their consisted in overcoming a new country, ours today consist in climbing over some of the social frontiers and making the world a better place in which to live.

Clark Speaks.

On Wednesday, Sept. 23, Joseph J. Clark, Judge of the district court, was the speaker. He spoke on "The Outlook of the Younger Generation." From his twenty-eight years of experience on the bench in Iowa courts, he brought a valuable message to the assembly. His advice was, in concentrated form: "Set your goal and follow it. Don't follow the crowd."

Since Judge Clark has observed several generations he compared them and reached this conclusion: "The young people of today are neither worse nor better than the people of a generation ago."

Church Hymns.

Reverend Prottengeier of Charles City addressed the student body on Monday, Sept. 28, in regard to church hymns. He discussed the meaning and significance of singing hymns and told the story of the origin of "From Greenland's Icy Mountains." This is the standard for the Mission Festivals of the American Lutheran church.

Inner Missions.

The superintendent of the inner missions at Columbus, Ohio, Rev- C. W. Phlueger, gave the assembly an insight into his work. He has had many experiences in administering to the physical and mental deficient and bringing them to Christ.

Reverend Phlueger contends that "the lives have fallen to us in pleasant places. We do not know what it means to be saved until we see the misery of the unsaved." In one case Reverend Phlueger said, "It is worth the twenty years I spent ministering to those in the penitentiary just to see the peace one man found in Christ before entering the electric chair."

Fritz and Braulick.

Besides these out of town speakers, the student body also heard Dean Fritz speak about the various deplorable conditions existing in many of our educational systems today, and President Braulick gave an address concerning the two undesirable extremes found in college students, namely, inferiority and superiorty complexes. In this connection he left with the asembly the thought, 'Your trust shall be as a spider's web, with God, a spider's web is as strong as a stone wall, without Him, a stone wall is as a spider's web."

IN MEMORIAM

Alice Johanna Aardal, daughter of the late Mr. Ekling Jensen and Emma Ingeborg Jensen, was born at Rutland, N. D., on Jan. 18, 1889. She was baptized and confirmed at Rutland by the Rev. R. Lavik, of the Norwegian Lutheran church.

After graduation from high school, she pursued a business course at Concordia college, Moorhead, Minn., and later at the Business College of Fargo, N. D. For several years following her training she was employed as a stenographer: for a year at Calgary and Edmonton, Alberta, Canada; over a period of twelve years with the Eastman Bonding Company, the Paper Supply Company, and with the Washburn and Crosby Mills, all of Minneapolis, Minn.

During the World War she volunteered her services, crossing the seas as clerical worker of the Army and Navy in the Home Communication Department of the Red Cross unit in Paris, where she efficiently and bravely performed her duties from August 17, 1918, to April 30, 1919.

On June 30, 1920, she was married to Prof. Albert Aardal, then of Concordia college, Moorhead, Minn., by the Rev. K. O. Kjerness.

For a short time Mrs. Aardal served as secretary at the college under the presidency of Dr. J. A. Aasgaard of the Norwegian Lutheran church. In 1924, the family moved to Ames, Iowa, where Mr. Aardal became a member of the faculty and continued his graduate work at Iowa State College. At Ames, Mrs. Aardal resumed her secretarial work, receiving an appointment as secretary to Dr. Edwards of the Colling hospital.

In 1930, Mr. Aardal was called to teach in the science department of Wartburg college, Clinton, Iowa, where the Aardal family made their home until the fall of 1935, when the college was moved to Waverly, Iowa.

Shortly before Thanksgiving of the last year, Mrs. Aardal submitted to an operation, after which she failed steadily in spite of the best of medical care. Rallying bravely after several treatments, she returned to her duties as a devoted wife and mother, fully resigned and ready whenever her Lord and Master might call her. In the early morning hours of Sept. 28, 1936, she folded her hands in prayer and quietly breathed her last a few moments later.

A woman of strong faith and noble character, Mrs. Aardal is a blessed memory to those who survive her: her husband, Prof. Albert Aardal; her three daughters, Anne, Jane, and Emmajean; her aged mother at Rutland, N. D.; a sister Carrie, Mrs. O. C. Olson of Littleton, Colo.; and two brothers, Chris Jensen, of Breckenridge, Minn., and John Jensen of Rutland, N. D. Her father and two brothers, Elmer and Jens Jensen, preceded her in death, her aged father being summoned only six months ago, in April 1936.

The twenty-third Psalm was a favorite of Mrs. Aardal's. Often during her illnes she requested her husband to read to her the Psalmist's words, for with the writer of that psalm she felt a spiritual kinship, knowing, as she did, that God's love was her only protection as she walked through the valley of the shadow of death.

Saltzmann, Siefkes Speak at Festival

Prof. S. Saltzmann of Wartburg Seminary, Dubuque, Iowa, and the Rev. S. Siefkes of Waverly were guest speakers at the annual mission festival of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Sunday, Sept. 20.

The morning missionary sermon was delivered by Professor Saltzmann and the afternoon service was conducted in the German language by Reverend Siefkes and Professor Saltzmann. The church choir sang for both services.

In the evening Reverend Schleuter, the church pastor, conducted a special service for the children of the congregation.

Braulick Will Speak At First Meeting

Pres. E. J. Braulick will address the first meeting of the Round Table Tuesday, Oct. 27. His subject will be the American Lutheran church convention in San Antonio, Tex., which he is attending this week.

There will also be a musical program in connection with this meeting and refreshments will be served. All new students are invited to attend.

New officers of the society will be elected after convocation some morning, before the first meeting of Round Table. Dean G. J. Neumann is the faculty advisor.

The Misses Ina and Marie Voelker visited at their homes in Oelwein and Postville Sept. 26 and 27.

Prof. A. A. Aardal will represent Wartburg college and Capital University, Columbus, Ohio, at the anniversary celebration and inauguration of Pres. Charles Edwin Filey, Ames, Iowa.

MINERS BEAT KNIGHTS 12-6 IN HARD GAME

Welsey Shakes Loose For 68-yard Run To Score.

By Leonard Fritschel

The Wartburg Knights dropped a heartbreaking 12-6 game to the Wisconsin School of Mines on the Wartburg field Friday night, Oct. 2. A 68 yard touchdown, run by Wilsey, with less than five minutes remaining of the game after a 33 yard march over the goal line proved to be too much for the Orange and the Black.

In the first quarter the Knights failed to capitalize on scoring opportunities provided by two fumbles by the Miners. Oppermann recovered their first fumble on the 39-yard line, and Koob the second on the 34. After Oppermann's recovery Ellermeier and Dean cracked the Platteville line consistently to advance to the 5-yard line where the attack bogged down allowing Walters to punt out of danger.

Late in the second quarter Oberleiter displayed some beautiful running on a 35-yard sprint to the Miner's 20, but here again the Knights lost the ball inches short of a first down.

Koob Blocks Punt.

Wartburg went to work in the third quarter, and after several exchanges of punts, Koob blocked Walter's punt and Kuester recovered on the Miner's 8-yard line. A four yard buck, a penalty to the one-foot line and a fine smash by Ellermeier produced Wartburg's only tally. A buck for point after fell short.

Early in the fourth quarter the Miners took advantage of a break to tie the score. Ellermeir fumbled on his own 33 and Platteville recovered. With Walters and Wilsey carrying the ball the Miners punched the ball over after ten downs. The place-kick for point was no good.

Wilsey Runs.

Following the kick-off Wilsey intercepted one of Dean's passes on his own 33, and after one unsuccessful line play tore himself lose from several tacklers and crossed the goal line standing up. Koob blocked the second attempt at placement.

Henry Koob, Arnold Kuester, Cletus Bergman, Ellermeier and Oberleiter played outstanding ball for the Knights, while the Miner attack was led by Walters and Wilsey.

The line-up:

—Wartburg	6	Miners 12—
Koob	LE	G. Anderson
Nickel (C)	LT	Corbin
Harris	LG	A. Anderson
Ackermann	C	Shepard
Bergman	RG	Bemel
Kuester	RT	Ovetz

"HIT HIM LOWER AND DRIVE"

No necktie tackles this year says Coach Hertel as he relentlessly drives his men to get them in shape for the next conflict against Waukon Friday night.

ASK ACK

By Scribe Ackermann

Well, dear subscriber, the first two games of the Wartburg 1936 football season are history, and what history. I'm sure the football men realize how Napoleon felt after Waterloo. The Knights have played good football in their first two encounters, but have lacked the necessary drive and punch within the ten yard line. Six times in the past two games the Knights have been within their opponents' 10 yard line and have lost the ball on downs. Coach Hertel is wondering what remedy could be applied—perhaps a stick of dynamite. . . .

HONORS TO HANK

FULL HONORS must be paid to "Hank" Koob for the splendid way in which he handled his end position in the past two games. Hank has been getting more than his share of the tackles, and in a most vicious manner, besides consistenly batting down the interference on end sweeps.

RECREATION ROOM

THE MEN of the "Embassy" (North Hall) have taken the first step in providing a recreation room on the campus. At a recent meeting of the "Ambassadors" it was decided to purchase a billiard table which is to be set up in the "Embassy." Altho a billiard table is a meager beginning, the men expect also to erect some ping-pong tables in the near future.

PEP GOOO

THE PEP AT the initial home game was good. Aided by Rapath's Grenadiers and the bell on the rear of Kuethe's Ford the students really let themselves go. This week we have another home game. Let's see how much pep can be generated then in cheering our team to it's first victory.

ACK PREOICTS

IT SEEMS that my first two attempts at prediction did not turn out so well. However, I have guessed half the score in both games, even though it was on the wrong side, I am going to give one more try, but I will refrain from actual scores. Suffice it to say that we will decisively defeat Waukon and eke out a hard win over Milton.

BREVITIES

MAYBE I should have called this column Lamentations . . . At Estherville . . . Dean acquiring a fluffy puppy . . . Men playing bowlette in hotel . . . "Scribe" getting high of 260 . . . Kuester being nearly mobbed by girls after the game in which he hollered 'Come on, babe, let's go" . . . Knock, Knock of "If we don't, Estherville" . . . Wondering if that blue four-wheeled creature is an animated football . . . Auf Wiedersehen.

KNIGHTS DROP FIRST GAME 6-0 TO ESTHERVILLE

Wolves Score Late in Third on 15-Yard Pass.

The Wartburg Knights dropped their first encounter of the 1936 season to the Estherville Wolves by the score of 6-0 on the Estherville field Friday night, Sept. 25, when the Wolves heaved a pass from the 15-yard line late in the third quarter.

Wartburg kicked off to Estherville's 15 yard line and Elwood returned it to their 35. After three thrusts at the line, which netted only four yards, the Wolves were forced to kick to Dean on the Wartburg 25 yard line. Another exchange of punts after Estherville had made a first down gave the Knights possession of the ball on their own 20. From here, aided by two penalties and a long pass, Wartburg drove down to their opponent's 40 yard line. It looked as if the Knights would continue down the field but the interception of a Knight pass halted the drive.

Knights Get Break.

After advancing 12 yards in four plays the Knights got possession of the ball on the Wolves' 10 yard line as a result of a bad pass from center and fumble by an Estherville back. With first down and goal to go at the end of the first quarter the Estherville defense stiffened and gave Wartburg only four yards in the series of downs as the Knights attempted two more passes. During the entire second quarter the ball was in Estherville territory, but the Knights again lacked drive when in scoring territory.

Estherville Scores.

Ellermeier again kicked off to open the second half and Wartburg got possession of the ball just across the midfield stripe as Bergman recovered the fumble of a short kick. Neither team was able to do much gaining, and both teams resorted to a punting duel with Staehling carrying off the honors when he put the ball out of bounds on the one yard line from his own 45 against the wind. A long kick by Estherville placed the ball on the Knight 30 yard marker. Wartburg lost the ball to the Wolves as a result of a fumble, but the opponents were held to downs. Wartburg again fumbled and Estherville recovered on the 10 yard line. After two tries at the line Estherville passed for a touchdown, but the kick for extra point was blocked.

In about the middle of the final canto the Knights loosed an aerial bombardment of passes from Dean to Harden which carried the ball from the 45 yard line across the midfield to the five yard line, where Wartburg was held for downs. The Knights kept trying their passes within the Estherville 25 yard marker but were unable to complete them and the game ended after interference on a pass with second down and two yards to go for a touchdown.

Koob and Ellermeir played the best ball for the Knights while Miller, Thompson, Elwood and Hackett showed up well for the Wolves.

The line-up:

—Wartburg		Estherville—
Koob	LE	Otto
Gall	LT	Hubbard
Bergman	LG	Doud
Ackermann	C	Miller
Harris	RG	Tjaden
Kuester	RT	Thompson
Nickel	RE	Torrence
Dean	QB	O. Warrington
Staehling	RH	K. Warrington
Harden	LH	Elwood
Ellermeier	FB	Hackett

Score by quarters:

Wartburg	0	0	0	0
Estherville	0	0	6	0

Substitutions:

Wartburg: Oberleiter, Oppermann, Karsten, Roesler; Estherville: Smith, Furan, Woods.

KNIGHT ELEVEN TO MEET WAUKON

Wartburg to Be Host to Waukon Juniors on Oct. 9.

The Wartburg eleven will tangle with the Waukon Junior College team of Waukon, Iowa on the Wartburg field Oct. 9 in the second home game of the 1936 grid season.

The Knights have not had a previous game with Waukon and comparatively little is known about the strength of the visiting team. However, it is believed that Waukon has been considerably weakened through the loss of many regulars last year.

All of Hertel's men came out of the Miners game without any bad injuries. Henry Koob, who played the Miner game in a bang-up style, will again be at the end position with Earnest Oppermann at the other end of the line. Capt. Arthur Nickel and Arnold Kuester will be found at the tackle berths as Herman, Gall, Herb Jech and Herb Adix are held in reserve. Coach Hertel will decide his guard position from among Bob Harris, Cletus Bergman, Wally Langholz and Stan Roesler. The pivot position will be held down by Marty Ackermann with Arnold Karsten as substitute.

The backfield, which may be somewhat shifted, will be chosen from Carl Ellermeir, Kenneth Dean, Arno Oberleiter, Earnest Staehling, Ed Harden or Norbert Augst.
